Loan of School Funds.

The State board of education has passed upon application for loans for building public school houses in 34 counties, and has allowed $46,286. The result of this will be the erection of 95 new school houses at a total expenditure of $104,315. Thus the State will get the benefit of this amount of school property. Fifty-two of the new schools houses are to be built in accordance with the plans prepared by the State Superintendent and published in his last annual report. Fourteen school houses are in course of construction, nine are being repaired and enlarged, six will be in accordance with different plans, which, however, have been approved, while six are held up until plans are agreed upon by the State board and the counties. In eight cases the loan is for the purpose of buying private academies. It will be seen that the loan has greatly stimulated the building of school houses, and that it has also brought about the erection of improved buildings, since the average cost is, as will be seen, over $1,000.

State News Notes.

James Sistare and Verge Snipes, two white boys, 15 years of age, were arrested in Charlotte Saturday on a charge of stealing $110 from the father of Sistare, who lives nine miles from Waxhaw and is a farmer. The money represented years of saving on the part of Mr. Sistare and his daughter. James Sistare and Verge Snipes plotted to take the money and go West. Friday morning they stole the $110 and went to Waxhaw, where they purchased two bicycles for $47.25. They went to Charlotte, and stopped at the Queen City Hotel, refusing to register. The boys, who spent the night in the police station, expressed no regret over their action.

While engaged in putting a new roof on the residence of Mrs. Mary Huntley at Wadesboro Thursday, a carpenter dropped his hammer through the rafters. Going down for the tool, the workman was horrified to find a skeleton lying in the attic. The skeleton was apparently that of a white man. Dried flesh still adhered to portions of the bones and there were signs that rats had eaten a part of the body. Fragments of clothing, an old hat, a pair of shoes and a collar button were also found lying around the skeleton. The hat was near the skull and the shoes were just below the feet.

The body of Mrs. Dolph Weaver was found dead in a well at her home in Cool Springs, near Statesville, Friday. She was bruised about the neck, indicating that she had been choked to death and then thrown into the well. The coroner's jury reported that Mrs. Dolph Weaver, had been outraged. A negro, Wilford Roseboro, is charged with the crime. Roseboro has been located in Saluda, and the sheriff has gone after him.

Working at her place on an operating table in the knitting mill at Washington, Bessie Ipock, a twelve-year-old girl, had her dress wound around the exposed shaft bar that was revolving swiftly. As soon as the slack of the dress was wound up, the girl's body was whirled round and round through the air and her head struck the floor with a sickening thud, killing her instantly.

Grand Secretary Drewry, of the grand lodge of Masons, says that Francis D. Winston last week raised $2,220 for the Masonic Temple. Of this $570 was raised at Goldsboro, $420 at Enfield, $480 at Smithfield and $485 at Wilson. Windsor lodge has so far contributed more than any lodge outside of Raleigh, it having taken $1,200 of stock.

A charter is granted the Greensboro Supply Company, capital $35,000, to manufacture and deal in engines, machinery, etc.; W. L. Guthry and others stockholders.

As yet the railways have given no indications as to whether they intend to contest the assessment of their property by the corporation commission. Of course not a few of the railways are much stirred by the large increase in appraisement.

The State charters the Springhope Cotton Oil Company, of Nash county, capital $30,000, B. W. Upchurch and several score of other residents being stockholders.

The State grants a charter to the Pamlico & Neuse River Timber Company, of Newbern, with $125,000 capital, the stockholders being D. W. Green, D. J. Nusewander and C. H. Mills, all of Toledo, Ohio. The company will deal in timber and timber lands, operate saw mills and woodworking plants of any kind.

The gold receipts at the local United States assay office in Charlotte during the month of July were $28,946.18. The corresponding month of last year the receipts were $35,313.57. The receipts the past month amounted to more than the receipts for any month this year up to date.

The increase in State taxes which the increase in railway assessment will bring about will be about $70,000.

Lucette McDonald, a young colored woman, was run over and killed by the shifting engine in the Southern freight yards at Charlotte at 11 o'clock Saturday night. The dead woman was drunk that night and it is presumed that she was asleep on the track. She had an unsavory reputation.

One hundred and four negroes, men and women, all from New York and vicinity, returned to North Carolina on one train Saturday, on the Seaboard Air Line. They were so glad to get back that most of them cried for joy.

NORTH STATE CROPS.

Report on Conditions Given Out By the Department.

Very warm, dry weather prevailed during the fore part of the week, with maximum temperatures above 90 degrees and bright sunshine and crops continued to suffer in nearly all sections from the general deficiency in moisture. Favorable local rains occurred from July 29th to August 1st, which greatly revived vegetation. The precipitation, however, was quite irregularly distributed and was insufficient over most of the central and western counties, hardly wetting the soil to the depth of an inch or so. The counties in which rain is still urgently needed are chiefly: Bladen, Cumberland, Granville, Union, McDowell, Mecklenburg, and Henderson. Local heavy and washing rains occurred at Raleigh on the night of the 27th, at Berlin, Ashe county 28th and at Yadkinville and Pilot Mountain on the 31st. The temperature for the week averaged about normal, but the last few days were cloudy and cooler. Crops have been generally laid by clean and well cultivated, and in condition to respond rapidly to favorable weather ,but all crops are still late for the season.

The drought has undoubtedly injured the early corn crop considerably, especially on light, sandy land, where the plants fired up to the ears; the deficiency in moisture at this time was not favorable for the maturing of the ears; late corn looks green and thrifty, and is very promising; some fodder has been stripped from old corn. Cotton is small and many correspondents report that it is blooming to the top; it appears to be fruiting well, however, and in the extreme south portion of the State some bolls are nearly full grown. Some shedding of forms is reported, but less than usual at this season; generally cotton continues to do fairly well. Tobacco has been all topped in northwestern counties, where some splendid crops are reported; many plants fired at the bottom in northern section; curing is being carried on rapidly under favorable conditions. Field peas were somewhat checked in growth by drought. Sweet potatoes, peanuts and rice have not suffered much injury, but garden vegetables have failed to make much growth. Saving hay was accomplished successfully during the week; some little plowing for winter wheat has been done. Late apples appear to be more promising in western counties than heretofore reported.

Rains during the week: Hatteras, 0.7 0inches; Weldon, 0.52; Newbern, 1.42; Lumberton, 1.24; Wilmington, 1.90; Raleigh, 3.16; Soapstone Mount, 1.25; Foster, 2.00; Saxon, 1.60; Greensboro, 0.46; Asheville, 2.40; Charlotte, 0.10; Marion, 0.56; Settle, 1.78.

Railroad Assessment.

Raleigh, Special.—At 8 o'clock Monday evening the State tax commission made public its assessment of railway properties and those of other common carriers. The valuations are as follows: Atlantic Coast Line, 947 miles, $24,454,014, increase $10,475,574, valuation per miles $25,800; Seaboard Air Line 612 miles, valuation $12,500,000, increase $3,787,272, valuation per mile $20,420; Southern Railway, owned lines 589, miles $14,735,250, increase $7,770,015, valuation per mile, $25,000; Southern Railway, leased lines, 690 miles, $11,,565,339, increase $2,704,897 valuation per mile $16,757. Miscellaneous railways, 994 miles, $6,757,745, increase $2,647,331. Grand total 3,834 miles $70,012,348, increase $27,385,089. The North Carolina Railway is valued at $29,928 per mile, the Atlanta and Charlotte Air Line at $30,000, and the Norfolk and Western at $60,000. The average valuation of miscellaneous roads is $6,793 per mile and of all roads $18,259 per mile. Telegraph companies are assessed at $990,321; telephone, $508,205; express, $402,109; Pullman cars, $179,071; refrigerator companies, $157,082; street railways, $1,395,750; water-works, $374,000, electric light plants, $329,430, steamboats, $204,000. The grand total of all common carriers is $74,552,226.

Tar Heel Topics.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction was informed that a lady who had, for several years, been a good teacher in a public school had secured a husband and did not attend a teacher's institute this year because, as the writer said, "she was on a bridle tour," it was contended by her that this was a "providential hindrance." The question was submitted to the State Superintendent. He replied that he will have to leave it to the judgment of the county superintendent to pass upon such a delicate matter. He rather thought that the county superintendent could afford to excuse her on the ground that marrying was good work. However, it was added that in the parable of the feast the Master said that marriage was not a providential hindrance. However, in the latter case a man offered the excuse of marrying the woman, while in the one now before the authorities the excuse that a woman was marrying a husband might make a difference. The State Superintendent added that he thought his correspondent had unwittingly stumbled upon a great truth in using the word "bridle" for "bridal."

Accused of Murder.

A negro woman of bad repute was run over by a shifting engine of the Southern Railway at Charlotte on Saturday night. Evidence has developed to show that she was murdered by a band of thieves who quarrelled with her earlier in the evening. The coronor's jury will complete its investigation and hold the guilty parties for trial at the next term of court.

VIEWS ON LYNCHING

President Sends His Congratulations to Governor Durbin

AN UTTERANCE BY THE EXECUTIVE

Mr. Roosevelt Holds That Lynching For Any Crime is Subversive of All Law and Must Be Suppressed.

Oyster Bay, Special.—In a letter, the publication of which was authorized, President Roosevelt commends Governor Durbin, of Indiana, for the attitude he assumed recently respecting lynching. The President also embraces the opportunity to express his own views on lynching and mob violence generally, pointing out that mob violence is merely one form of anarchy and that anarchy is the forerunner of tyranny. The President vigorously urges that the penalty for that crime which most frequently induces a resort to lynching shall be applied swiftly and surely, but by due process of the courts, so that it may be demonstrated "that the law is adequate to deal with crime by freeing it from every vestige of technicality and delay." President Roosevelt's letter in full to Governor Durbin follows:

"Oyster Bay, August 6, 1903.

"Governor Durbin: Permit me to thank you as an American citizen for the admirable way in which you have vindicated the majesty of the law by your recent action in reference to lynching. I feel, my dear sir, that you have made all men your debtors who believe as all of the far-seeing men must, that the well-being, indeed, the very existence of the republic, depends upon that spirit of orderly liberty under the law which is as incompatible with mob violence as with any form of despotism. Of course mob violence is simply one form of anarchy, and anarchy is now, as it always has been, the handmaiden and forerunner of tyranny.

"I feel that you have not only reflected honor upon the State which for its good fortune has you as its Chief Executive, but upon the whole nation. It is incumbent upon every man throughout this country not only to hold up your hands in the course you have been following, but to show his realization that the matter is one of vital concern to us all.

"All thoughtful men must feel the gravest alarm over the growth of lynching in this country and especially over the peculiarly hideous forms so often taken by mob violence when colored men are the victims, on which occasions the mob seems to lay most weight, not on the crime, but on the color of the criminal. In a certain proportion of these cases the man lynched has been guilty of a crime horrible beyond description, a crime so horrible that as far as he himself is concerned he has forfeited the right to any kind of sympathy whatsoever. The feeling of all good citizens that such a hideous crime shall not be hideously punished by mob violence is due not in the least to sympathy for the criminal, but to a lively sense of the train of dreadful consequences which follow the course taken by the mob in exacting inhuman vengeance for an inhuman wrong. In such cases, moreover, it is well to remember that the criminal not merely sins against humanity in inexplicable and unpardonable fashion, but sins particularly against his own race, and does them a wrong far greater than any white man can possibly do to them. Therefore, in such cases the colored people throughout the land should in every possible way show their belief that they, more than all others in the community, are horrified at the commission of such a crime and are peculiarly concerned in taking every possible measure to prevent its recurrence and to bring the criminal to immediate justice. The slightest lack of vigor either in denunciation of the crime or in bringing the criminal to justice is itself unpardonable.

"Moreover, every effort should be made under the law to expedite the proceedings of justice in the case of such an awful crime. But it cannot be necessary, in order to accomplish this, to deprive any citizen of those fundamental rights to be heard in his own defense, which are so dear to us all and which lie at the root of our liberty. It certainly ought to be possible by the proper administration of the laws to secure swift vengeance upon the criminal, and the best and immediate efforts of all legislators, judges and citizens should be addressed to securing such reforms in our legal procedure as to leave no vestige of excuse for those misguided men who undertake to reap vengeance through violent methods.

"Men who have been guilty of a crime like rape or murder should be visited with swift and certain punishment, and the just effort made by the courts to protect them in their rights should under no circumstances be perverted into permitting any mere technicality to avert or delay their punishment. The substantial rights of the prisoner to a fair trial of course must be guaranteed, as you have so justly insisted that they should be, but, subject to this guarantee—the law must work swiftly and surely, and all agents of the law should realize the wrong they do when they permit justice to be delayed or thwarted for technical or insufficient reasons. We must show that the law is adequate to deal with crime by freeing it from every vestige of technicality and delay.

"But the fullest recognition of the horror of the crime and the most complete lack of sympathy with the criminal cannot, in the least diminish our horror at the way in which it has become customary to avenge these crimes and at the consequences that are already proceeding therefrom. It is, of course, inevitable that where vengeance is taken by a mob it should frequently light on innocent people, and the wrong done in such case to the individual is one for which there is no remedy. But even where the real criminal is reached the wrong done by the mob to the community itself is well-nigh as great. Especially is this true where the lynching is accompanied with torture. There are certain hideous sights which once seen can never be wholly erased from the mental retina. The mere fact of having seen them implies degradation. This is a thousand fold stronger when, instead of merely seeing the deed, the man has participated in it. Whoever in any part of our country has ever taken part in lawlessly putting to death a criminal by the dreadful torture of fire, must forever after have the awful spectacle of his own handwork seared into his brain and soul. He can never again be the same man. This matter of lynching would be a terrible thing even if it stopped with the lynching of men guilty of the inhuman and hideous crime of rape; but as a matter of fact, lawlessness of this type never does stop and never can stop in such fashion. Every violent man in the community is encouraged by every case of lynching in which the lynchers go unpunished to himself take the law into his own hands whenever it suits his own convenience. In the same way the use of torture by the mob in certain cases is sure to spread until it is applied more or less indiscriminately in other cases. The spirit of lawlessness grows with what it feeds on, and when mobs with impunity lynch criminals for one cause, they are certain to begin to lynch real or alleged criminals for other causes. In the recent cases of lynching over three-fourths were not for rape at all, but for murder, attempted murder and even less heinous offenses. Moreover, the history of these recent cases shows the awful fact that when the minds of men are habituated to the use of torture by lawless bodies to avenge crimes of a peculiarly revolting description, other lawless bodies will use force to accomplish crimes of an ordinary type. Surely no patriot can fail to see the fearful brutalization and debasement which the indulgence of such a spirit and such practices inevitably portend. Surely all public men, all writers for the daily press, all clergymen, all teachers, all who in any way have a right to address the public should with every energy unite to denounce such crimes and to support those engaged in putting them down. As a people we claim the right to speak with peculiar emphasis for freedom and for fair treatment of all men without regard to differences of race, fortune, creed or color. We forfeit the right to speak when we commit or condone such crimes as these of which I speak.

"The nation, like the individual, cannot commit a crime with impunity. If we are guilty of lawlessness and brutal violence, whether our guilt consist in active participation therein, or in mere connivance and encouragement, we shall assuredly suffer later on because of what we have done. The corner-stone of this republic, as of all free governments, is respect for and obedience of the law. Where we permit the law to be defied or evaded, whether by rich man or poor man, by black man or white, we are by just so much weakening the bonds of our civilization and increasing the chances of its overthrow and of the substitution therefor of a system in which there shall be violent alternations of anarchy and tyranny.

"Sincerely yours,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"Hon. Winfield T. Durbin,
"Governor of Indiana,
"Indianapolis, Indiana."

Textile Strike Ended.

Philadelphia, Special.—The textile strike in this city, which was inaugurated ten weeks ago, was Saturday afternoon practically declared off, 20,000 of the strikers through their executive board deciding to return to work on Monday. It is estimated that about 60,000 textile strikers are still on strike and the determination of one-third of these to return to work, it is believed will force the collapse of the strike.

Colima Active.

Tuxapan, Mex., Special.—The Colima volcano continues in a violent state of activity. The eruption Saturday was the most severe that has yet been known. Great clouds of smoke poured from the crater, but no ashes fell. Earthquake shocks extending along the coast as far south as the isthmus are reported. At some points the shock was oscillatory, while at others they were of a trepidatory character. No damages or casualties are reported.

The Inland Waterway.

Norfolk, Special.—The inland waterway board, consisting of three army engineers, Col. C. J. Allen, of Washington; Lieutenant Colonel Quinn, of Savannah, and Captain E. E. Winslow, of Norfolk, met here to consider reports received from Norfolk and other Southern cities, upon the feasibility and advisability of the construction by the United States government of an inland water way between Norfolk and Beaufort, N. C. The board formulated a report to the chief engineer, but nothing regarding the nature of the report was made public.

Mills Shut Down.

Boston, Special.—Instructions have been forwarded to the managers of the cotton mills of the China, Webster and Pembroke Manufacturing Companies at Suncook, N. H., to shut down three corporations on Saturday next until August 24th. The action was decided upon because of the high cost of cotton and the unsatisfactory condition of the market for print cloths, in the production of which all the Suncook mills are engaged. The Pittsfield, N. H., Cotton Mill will shut down the same day for several weeks.

In Cuba sixteen tons of cane yielded one ton of syrup; in Peru it requires only twelve and a half.

NEW POPE GOES IN

Pius Tenth Now Wears the Famous Triple Tiara

THOUSANDS WITNESS CEREMONIES

Multitudes Stood For Ten Hours on Their Feet to Get a Glimpse of the New Pontiff.

Rome, By Cable.—The ceremony of the coronation of Pope Pius X took place in the basilica of St. Peter's, in the presence of the princes and high dignitaries of the Church, diplomats and Roman nobles, and with all the solemnity and splendor dissociated with this, the most magnificent rite in the Roman Catholic Church. As Cardinal Macchi, the dean of the cardinal deacons, placed the triple crown on the head of the venerable Pontiff, the throng of 70,000 persons gathered within the cathedral burst into unrestrained acclamations, the choir into a hymn of triumph and the bells of Rome rang out a joyful peal.

It is 57 years since the Romans and Europe assisted at such a function, in St. Peter's. The great basilica, popularly supposed never to have been quite full, was overflowing. A bewildering mixture of gold, red and silver was erected in front of each altar. Contrary to custom on these ceremonious occasions there were no galleries and the basilica bore more of its normal aspect. On the altar, which was dressed in white, stood the famous silver gilt candlesticks and a magnificent crucifix. All the available standing space within the cathedral was divided into sections by wooden barriers, which, to a certain extent, kept the vast crowd in order.

A thick fog overhung Rome in the early hours, but the sun came out later and it was unbearablely hot. At 6 a. m., the ringing of bells announced the imminent opening of the church doors and a commotion at once began among the crowd. But ten minutes had to elapse before the doors opened and each seemed a century to the waiting crowd which for hours had been standing before the closed portals. The police and Italian soldiers had a difficult task, to maintain order. When the doors were opened the rush in was terrific. Many who started from the bottom of the steps outside were lifted off their feet and carried into the cathedral. It was a great human torrent let loose. The compactness of the crowd proved to be the safety of those who were caught in it. Women fainted in comparatively large numbers and even men were overcome by the heat, but no serious accidents were reported. Fortunately, there were few children present. After their entrance the people had further long hours of waiting and it is computed that the majority were on their feet together ten hours, five before the ceremony and another five while it lasted.

Those who had received special invitations, including the high ecclesiastics who were not participating in the procession, the diplomats and the Roman aristocracy, had a reserved entrance through the sacristy of St. Peter's. Prince Massino arrived accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Princess Beatrice, the daughter of Don Carlos, and they were given prominent seats. Duke Robert of Parma was the only other member of the royal family to attend. Among the aristocracy there was a great mixture of those Roman nobles who remain faithful to the papacy and those adhering to the Quirinal. Sir Thomas Esmonde, representing the Irish parliamentary party, was received by two Knights of the Cape and Sword, one F. McNutt, an American, and conducted to the diplomatic enclosure.

After the preliminary ceremonies, which were grand beyond description, the triple tiara was carried before the new Pope with appropriate remarks in latin. Cardinal Deacon Segna then raised the Pontiff's mitre and Senior Cardinal Deason Macchi placed on the venerable white head the triple crown. At this moment the church was filled with the ringing of bells, the blowing of silver trumpets, the triumphant strains of the choir and the acclamations of the multitude, which no longer could be repressed.

When comparative silence had been restored, Cardinal Macchi addressed the Pope in Latin as follows: "Receive the tiara ornamented with three crowns. Remember thou art the father of Princes and Kings, the rector of the world, the vicar on earth of our Sivior, Jesus Christ, who is the honor and glory of all centuries."

"Amen! Amen!" again burst forth from the concourse.

Pope Pius was quite overcome and had scarcely strength left to impart the apostolic benediction. Cardinals Macchi and Sagna granted a plenary indulgence to all present and the procession then re-formed and left the basilica in the same form as it came.

The Pope was visibly fatigued. Strong as the Pope is physically, he supported the ordeal of his coronation today perhaps with less fortitude than did Leo XIII when he was crowned, although the latter was merely a shadow of a man. This evening when the Pontiff received the Duke of Parma he said to him: "Not counting the election, today was the most tremendous experience of my life. I must find a way to stop the noise in the Church. It is an offense against religion."

Legislator Assaulted.

Atlanta, Special.—Representative C. C. Houston, of Fulton, was assaulted in the street here Saturday by J. J. Spalding, an Atlanta Lawyer, who struck Houston on the head twice with a heavy cane before bystanders interfered. No serious injury was inflicted.

The attack grew out of a charge of lobbying made against Mr. Spalding by Representative Houston and followed a general investigation of similar charges by a special legislative committee.

A TERRIBLE WRECK

Two Circus Trains Crash Together With Frightful Force

OVER A SCORE KILLED OUTRIGHT

Engineer of Second Section Found His Brakes Would Not Work and Lost Control of His Train.

Durand, Mich., Special.—Two sections of Wallace's circus train were wrecked Friday morning. Seven of the dead are in the morgue unidentified. Over twenty are more or less seriously injured. Coroner Farrell impanelled a jury, which viewed the remains and adjourned until August 14, when the inquest will be held. Following are the dead:

James McCarthy, trainsmaster, Grand Trunk road between Port Huron and Battle Creek; A. W. Large, special officer Grand Trunk, Battle Creek; John Purcell, of Peru, Ind., boss canvassman; Lafe Larson, of Cambridge, O., six-horse team driver; G. Thomas, residence unknown, member of stake and chain gang; Harry St. Clair, residence unknown, reserved seat man; John Leary, of Springfield, Ill., bos of ring stock; Andrew Howland, of New York State, canvassman; Frank Thorp, of Dundee, Mich., trainmaster of circus train; Robert Rice, residence unknown, harness maker; George Smith, residence unknown, blacksmith; James Toffelmire, of Orient, Iowa; Charles Sands, of Peru, Ind., driver; Joe Wilson, of Pittsburg; W. J. McCoy, of Columbus, O., canvassman with side show; Edward York, of Terra Haute, Ind.; unknown man; driver of band wagon; unknown man, home said to be Indianapolis, rider in circus races; unknown man, home said to be in Louisville, four-horse driver; unknown man, four-horse driver; unknown man, suffocated to death. Two unidentified men are dead at the hospital.

James S. Foley, of Detroit, special officer of the Grand Trunk, was seriously injured and J. J. Meadows, of Anderson, S. C., was also among the injured.

The circus travels in two trains of about 35 cars each. After Thursday night's exhibition at Charlotte, the two trains left for Lapeer over the Grand Trunk road, the second section leaving a half hour after the first. It was 3:45 o'clock when the first section pulled into the west end of the Grand Trunk yards here. A red light was hung on the rear car to stop the second section. Engineer Probst, of Battle Creek, who was running the engine of the rear train, says he saw this light and applied the air brake. He says it refused to work. He reversed his engine, but the momentum of the heavy train behind was too great and with a crash that aroused all of the town near the yards, the two trains met. Three cars of the stationary first section were telescoped and the engine and five cars of the moving train were demolished. The rear car of the first section was a caboose, in which the trainmen were sleeping, and the next two were filled with sleeping circus employes. The greatest loss of life was in the caboose. One of the wrecked cars of the second section was occupied by five elephants and several camels. One of the elephants and two of the camels were killed outright, while the other animals and their trainer escaped. With the exception of this car, none of the menagerie was wrecked, the other demolished cars containing canvass or wagons, and there was comparatively little excitement among the wild animals. As soon as they recovered from the first shock the trainers rushed among the cages quieting the few beasts that were excited. The elephants in the wrecked car behaved with surprising calmness and were led out of the wreck without trouble. The escaping steam and screams and cries of those pinned in the wreck made a horrifying spectacle in the gray of the early morning, when the trainmen in the yards and the aroused townspeople first reached the scene. Many feared at first that some of the menagerie had escaped, as some of the animals could be heard crying. The fire whistle was sounded and the whole town was aroused. The rescuers could see unfortunates through the tangled wreckage and went furiously to work without waiting for tools to extricate them. A wrecking crew is kept in the yards here, and it was on the scene in a very few minutes, bringing tools and equipment in plenty.

Pekin, Special.—Edward T. Williams, the Chinese secretary of the United States legation, has made an extensive investigation into the execution of Chien Shen, the journalist who was put to death by orders of the Empress Dowager, July 31, and has handed Minister Conger a detailed report proving that the executioners, after beating Chien for three or four hours, despaired of being able to fulfill the Empress Dowager's orders and yielding to Shen's pleadings to end his misery, strangled him with their hands.

"LAWLESSNESS WALKED THE STATE LIKE A PESTILENCE."

GOVERNOR AYCOCK STATED IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS THAT UNDER, AND THEREFORE BY IMPLICATION IN CONSEQUENCE OF, FUSION RULE "LAWLESSNESS WALKED THE STATE LIKE A PESTILENCE, CRIME STALKED ABROAD AT NOONDAY, SLEEP LAY DOWN WITH ALARM AND THE SOUND OF THE PISTOL WAS MORE FREQUENT THAN THE SONG OF THE MOCKING FIRD." HOW STANDS THE CASE TO-DAY GOVERNOR? HAVEN'T THE ACTS OF THREE RED SHIRT LEGISLATURES AND MORE THAN TWO YEARS OF YOUR OWN BENEFICENT RULE PASSED INTO HISTORY SINCE YOU PROCLAIMED THE FOREGOING? WHEN YOU ARE CAVORTING OVER THE STATE WHOOPING FOR EDUCATION AND ROADS DON'T YOU HEAR OF MORE CRIMES BEING COMMITED IN NORTH CAROLINA THAN EVER BEFORE AND DO YOU CONTINUE TO ATTRIBUTE THESE TO FUSION RULE?

DO YOU WANT MORE OF IT?

The Raleigh Morning Post speaking of the great increase in the assessment of property says:

"Two years ago this system extended to private corporations and they were assessed very much higher than ever before, counting capital stock and surplus, even when capital stock had been impaired and the surplus had become in reality a deficit. This year the system seems to have reached the towns and cities, and has struck the people of Raleigh with peculiar and stunning effect. We do not believe it has been visited with equal severity upon our country friends as yet, but if the propaganda is to continue, it will reach them with equal certainty and harshness.

It is a serious matter—one which appeals to thoughtful people—whether the present system can continue, and we earnestly hope that the people of North Carolina may realize the significance of this movement before the tax values of farming lands are raised in the unfeeling and irresponsible manner in which the assessment of other property has recently been raised. If farm lands were assessed in this State like banks, cotton mills, railroads and Raleigh city property is assessed, it would mean bankruptcy to many farmers any year when crops should fail or prices be very low.

This is a condition we just as well face. The problem of taxation in North Carolina is a serious one. The limit of taxation is as high as the constitution will permit, and the assessment in many instances more than could be possibly obtained for property belonging to corporations, and for real estate situate in some of our cities. The situation in Raleigh is a grave one. With a tax rate that ranks near the highest of any city in the Union, we have great quantities of property assessed for more than can possibly be obtained for it in the market in any way. What the effect of this situation will have upon the future of this city it does not require a prophet to tell.

These are the first fruits of the effort started a few years ago to raise property so that the courts would permit a higher assessment of railroads. Do you like it? Do you want it to continue?"

The Post seems to think that this great increase in our taxes is made by the tax assessors simply to get an opportunity to pull the railroads for a big pile of money. The Post is presumptious in what he would have us believe he thinks. The The extravagance of the Simmons-Aycock-Daniels machine has caused a great deficit in the State's Treasury and it must be filled—that's why our taxes have been increased to such an extent. That's why it has been necessary for the State to issue $500,000 in bonds under "democratic good government." Four new and unneccessary judgeships have been created and men appointed to fill the places with a big salary hung to their credentials. The Governors' salary has been raised $1,000, and other salaries have been raised and new offices created.

The State's money has been spent to protect thieving registrars and in various and sundry ways too numerous to mention.

And this is only the beginning. If the tax-payers submit to this increase in their taxes it will not be long before the democratic machine will be raising the salaries of their pets and creating new offices for other pets on the outside. And the next time they will go into the rural districts and as the Post says bankrupt the farmers. We now ask the Post the same question it has asked the public, do you want more of it? If you do not, see that you don't work with the democratic machine in the next election.

The people in North Carolina that want democratic "good (?) government" should take up a private subscription to pay for some and not tax the people to death to pay for its extravagance.

Asheville it is said has the best water and best system of water-works of any town in the State, and has a cheaper rate than many of the other towns. The city owns the water-works—see the point.

The Concord Tribune asks "what can be done in this country to arouse more interest in education, etc?"

That sounds to us like a hard slam on Aycock the great "educational governor."

The democratic papers all over this State are "cussing" Ben Tillman and still the democratic machine is trying to Tillmanize North Carolina. Oh consistency thou art a forgotten jewel.

It seems to be the duty of the Bank Examiner in North Carolina to come along after the bank has "busted" and tell how it happened.

The tax payers all over the State are awful mad over the great increase in their taxes. In many instances the taxes have been doubled.

Where is Locke Craig and Frank Winston? We haven't seen their names mentioned for governor next year.

JUDGE PRITCHARD WILL PRESIDE

Those Implicated in Post Office Scandal Case to be Tried in October.

Asheville Gazette.]

Washington, Aug. 8.—Judge J. C. Pritchard, who has presided over all branches of the District of Columbia Supreme court for several weeks past, took a recess yesterday until October 1. The Judge will remain in Washington until the latter part of next week, when he will go to Marshall, N. C., for rest and recreation.

Judge Pritchard is fast making a reputation here as an able, impartial jurist. He has handled a number of exceedingly weighty and important matters of late. Among them might be mentioned his ruling on the constitutionality of the union station act passed by the last congress, and his overruling of the demurrers to the indictments charging ex-Superintendent of Free Delivery Machen and the Groff brothers with bribery, in connection with the recently unearthed postal scandals. These latter cases will be tried before Judge Pritchard early in October and they bid fair to become as celebrated as the notorious "star route" trials a number of years ago, which, by the way, were held in the same court room in which Judge Pritchard presides.

A late statement issued by the Treasury department shows the country to be in robust financial health if the stock of money in circulation is a criterion. There is now in the United States a total of $2,695,440,174, which is $29.55 per capita on a population of 80,602,000, according to last estimates. With the water squeezed out of all kinds of standard stocks, as now appears to be the case, there is every reason why the country should advance at great strides to a greater prosperity even than has been experienced since the inauguration of the present unexampled period.

Ex-Senator Marion Butler stopped a day in Washington this week enroute to his country seat at Elliot, N. C., from New York city. The ex-Senator is connected with large financial interests; is making plenty of money, and has eschewed politics for he time. This correspondent ventures an opinion that when Senator Butler again throws down the gage to the democrats of North Carolina that he will lead his forces to victory. He is now a believer in the righteousness of republican principles and, in his ripened experience and intellectuality, will be a tower of strength to the forces that are destined to overthrow the sway of democracy in the old North State.

A FIGHT NEAR DAVIDSON.

Four Men Implicated Three of Whom Were Shot.

Charlotte, N. C., August 10.—Four white men and four negroes got into a quarrel, seven miles west of Davidson yesterday afternoon. The white men were in two waggons returning from a camp meeting, and the negroes coming from another camp meeting, were in buggies. They took up the greater half of the road and the wheels caught. The occupants got out and the quarrel began. Sol Shuford, a negro, cursed the white men, who cursed back. Shuford pulled a pistol, shot Alexander Auten through the body and emptied his pistol, the last shot going through Sam Philips' clothes, while Sam Lawton was shot in the left arm and side and John Lawton in the right arm.

You cannot sow thistles and reap wheat. When the democrats were marching about in red shirt uniforms, armed with winchesters and shotguns and bidding defiance to law and order in order to get themselves in office they were sowing the seeds that have germinated into a carnival of crime.—State Republican.

Abraham Lincoln's opinion of these Historical Celebrities: "I want to thank you and your brother for Abbott's Series of Histories. I have not education enough to appreciate the profound works of voluminous historians; and if I had I have no time to read them. But your Series of Histories gives me, in brief compass, just that knowledge of past men and events which I need. I have read them with the greatest interest. To them I am indebted for about all the historical knowledge I have."

This offer will challenge the attention and consideration, and afterwards the gratitude of every living person who desires better health, or who suffers pains, ills and diseases which have defied the medical world and grown worse with age. We care not for your skepticism, but ask your investigation, and at our expense, regardless of what ills you have, by sending to us for a package. You must not write on a postal card.

BEHEADED HER CHILDREN.

Negro Woman, Crazed by Religion, Offered Daughters as Sacrifice.

Columbia S. C., Aug, 9.—At Church Flats, Orangeburg County, to-day Lizzie Aiken, a negro woman, slew her two young daughters, completely beheading them with an ax. She then kindled fires around the bodies.

The woman has been attending revivals lately and became enthused over religion. She is evidently demented. Explaining her action, she said a dog told her the world would come to an end unless she killed her children. This she considered a message from God. She was taken to jail in Waterboro.

Bead Remained in Her Head 17 Years.

Seventeen years ago, when Mrs. W. L. Hogue was 4 years old, she was playing with some beads and in some way got a glass bead about the size of a pea up her nose. The physician failed to get it out. After a few days the bead gave her no trouble and it was thought to have come out. Last week she gave a violent sneeze and felt something come into her nostril. It was taken out and there was the bead that had gotten in there when she was a child. The bead gave her no pain when it came out and it is strange to know how the bead stayed there so long without giving trouble.—Gastonia News.

Wreck on the Southern Near Gastonia.

Charlotte, N. C, August 10—The wreck of No 35, the Southern Railway's fast southbound train, one mile north of Gastonia, at 11 o'clock tonight, resulted in serious injury to Engineer Black and his colored fireman and Postal Clerks Birchfield and Sharpe.

Southern Railway officials here declare that the train ran into an open switch, but the engineer on the train says the boiler exploded while the train was running at an unusual high rate of speed.

Judgements Amounting to $600 Against Gold Hill Copper Co.

Charlotte, N. C., August 10.—B. B. Miller, of Salisbury, N. C., was named today as temporary receiver of the Gold Hill Copper Company by Judge B. A. Long, of the Superior court upon application of Salisbury and Gold Hill creditors. Judgements to the amount of $6,000 have been taken out against the copper company.

A Negroe Killed While Robbing A Post Office.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 8.—A negro was killed at Reams, near Petersburg, today. Hugh Ennis, the son of the postmaster, heard an unusual noise very early, and loading his gun with bird shot, went to investigate. He caught a negro in the act of robbing the office. The negro advanced toward Ennis threatening with a bludgeon after being warned, and Ennis fired the full charge into his face. The negro fell mortally wounded and died in a few minutes. The negro was unknown in the neighborhood. In the woods a short distance away a white horse was found hitched. It is supposed to be the horse the negro rode from a distance.

ASKS NO PARDON BUT ACQUITTAL

Michael Keller, Aged 80, Has Spent 50 Years in Jail Refusing Pardon.

Frankfort, August 8.—Michael Keller celebrated his eightieth birthday in jail, where he has been a prisoner for fifty years. Three times commutation of his sentence was offered him, but he refused "the king's grace," maintaining that he was innocent. Keller a barber by trade, is accused of having cut a man's throat for the purpose of robbery. He says the killing was accidental, as his knife slipped.

Two Rag Time Anthems.

A colored divine from Salisbury was holding a meeting here last week and during the services he told the congregation that he had two songs to sing for them; that everywhere else he was paid five dollars each for singing them, but because of the friendly relations between the Asheboro negroes and himself he would render two for five dollars. At once the congregation set to work and raised the money, for which they received two fancy ragtime anthems —Randolph Argus

Old Lady Drowed.

Salisbury, N. C., Aug. 8.—Mrs. Emma Henly, aged sixty-seven years, an estimable lady of Turnersburg, Iredell county, was drowned in Third Creek, three miles west of Statesville, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Henly was visiting relatives in West Statesville and had driven out on a small road bridge when the horse shied, throwing the vehicle and both its occupants into the stream. The buggy fell on Mrs. Henly, who was quite large and heavy, holding her under water until life was extinct. Mr. Arthur Turner, who accompanied her, escaped without injury.

Wonder if John S. Cunningham hearst he gubernational bee buzz in his bonnet every time he attends a farmers meeting? He would be disappointed if he did not.

The Designer For September.

The early autumn number of The Designer is in many respects the most remarkable issue of this popular magazine for women that has ever appeared. The art work is of an unusually high order, and the articles are brimful of entertainment and helpfulness. Fashions and millinery for autumn are tastefully set forth, and "Millinery Lessons" and "Points on Dressmaking" assist the Ameteur to attain excellent results in both. A most novel departure is the appearance in this number of the enitial article of "Fashion Notes for Men,' which is takingly illustrated, and supplies thoroughly up to-date items on the various smaller items of the masculine toilet. Fashion notes for women are given in "Woman's Fads and Fancies" and "Fashions and Fabrics," both of which describe and picture what is displayed in the most exclusive shops

The Way To Win A Woman.

How many men would not pay a high price for an infallible recipe of the way to win a woman? The man whose character hangs in the set of his coat, and whose talent is consummated in his ability to dance a two-step, may be well enough to look upon and tread a measure with; but when a woman considers giving up her love and life, she wants a real man—one with firmer characteristics than these. In The Cosmopolitan for August Lavinia Hart, in an able article, attempts to solve the problem of "The Way to Win a Woman."

The Charlotte Observer says there has been a decline in the number of candidates for the ministry in all the churches

Then all the churches are to be congratulated. If only those who are called would apply, the profession would be greatly improved and the vineyard of the Master cultivated to better effect.—Asheville Register.

The Review of Reviews for August describes three electric power plants of importance, one on the Hudson River, one in Southern California, and one on Mount Rainier, in Washington State. These developments serve to indicate what might be accomplished in hundreds of places through the utilization of water power now going to waste.

That eccentric American genius, James McNeill Whistler, who died suddenly in London on July 17, is sketched in the Review of Reviews for August by Mr. Earnest Knaufft; portraits of the artist and reproductions of some of his characteristic works accompany the article.

HUSBAND MURDERED BRIDE.

Swallowed Morphine After Firing Two Shots Into Wife's Body.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 9.—A bride of four months, Mrs. Edgar H. Frantz, aged nineteen years, is dead, slain by her husband, a well-known young drug clerk of this city. Frantz is dying from the effects of morphine, which he swallowed after firing two bullets into his wife.

The woman was murdered in her sleep. Frantz left a note, in which he said they had agreed to die together, but from the note and other facts it is believed Mrs. Frantz was the unsuspecting victim of her husband's jealousy.

Drowned While in Smimming.

Tarboro, N. C., Aug. 10.—Marvin Hill, the ten-year-old son of Mrs. Lucien Pope, of this place, was drowned yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock near the boat landing while in swimming.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

MISS MAY MARKELL,

A Society Belle of London, Canada.

Miss May Markell.

MISS MAY MARKELL of London, Ontario, Canada, is a beautiful girl who knows what suffering is and Wine of Cardui has brought her back to health. She is one of the social favorites of her home and her recovery to health has permitted her to enjoy the company of her many friends instead of lying on a bed of sickness and suffering. For the health she now enjoys she gives credit to Wine of Cardui. She writes:

"I have found Wine of Cardui an excellent remedy for female trouble. I suffered for three years with terrible bearing-down pains at the menstrual period. I could hardly stand on my feet and was never real well. Wine of Cardui was the only medicine that I could depend on to do me any good, as I tried several with no success. Wine of Cardui cured me and I have now enjoyed perfect health for two years, and give you all the credit for I know you deserve it."

For a young girl Wine of Cardui is the best remedy to guide her through womanhood by starting the menstrual flow in a healthy and natural manner. Menstruation started right is very easy to keep regular through the years of mature womanhood. Then the "change of life" need not be feared. Thus Wine of Cardui is woman's best relief from youth to old age. A million women have secured blessed relief from their sufferings by taking this treatment. It relieves menstrual troubles in an incredibly short time. In a simple case of deranged menses Wine of Cardui never fails. To relieve disordered menses is to remove the cause of other female troubles. Any physician will tell you that to remove the cause of a disease renders the cure easy, in fact seldom fails to complete the cure. If you would have the same relief which Miss Markell secured try Wine of Cardui. You can take it without an examination and without any publicity whatever. You can take it in the privacy of your home and secure just as much benefit as if a doctor had prescribed it for you. Thousands of women are feeling the vigor of returning health by taking Wine of Cardui.

WINE of CARDUI A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

Pain Appreciation.

When you say that one man bears pain better than another man may it not simply be another way of saying that the latter has simply a greater capacity for feeling pain?

I have heard it declared that pain was largely a matter of imagination. This, of course, is true in a measure. If the mind can be occupied in some other direction one may forget pain.

On the other hand, a man may imagine pain possibilities that will unnerve him and make him sensitive to a triffe.

A man ought to be able to walk a narrow plank between the top of the Frick building and the tower of the Court House just as easily as he would walk that same plank six inches from the ground. But if he were able to picture himself falling through the air, could imagine his brains and blood bespattering the ground when he struck it with his head, he would not be able to do much elevated wolking

And so I have no contempt for the man who shudders at the thought of pain, who shrinks from the ordeal He perhaps best appreciates just what it is.—Grif Alexander, in Pittsburg Dispatch.

A LESSON FOR PHYSICIANS.

Spirit of Harshness and Lordliness No Longer Tolerated.

There is one good result of "an overcrowded profession," and of the sharp competition that exists among doctors in the rivalry for popular favor. This is the disappearance of the old-time spirit of harshness and lordliness, which sometimes degenerated into positive brutality. These characteristics were the natural products of an original boorishness, increased by success and a comparative monopoly of practice. It takes a gentlemanly mind not to be spoiled by the attitude of subservience on the part of patients, and the habit of ordering by the physician in charge.

In every large community there are still left specimens of medical Dr. Johnsons, who from a ruder age have carried down a cross and commanding acerbity of manner that is now out of place and time. In one of our large American cities there is an example known far and wide. His loss of patients does not teach him any lesson, and seems rather to increase his churlishness. He seems to take a special delight in hurting the feelings of his patients by a perverse irascibility.

A patient who was shocked by this manner in the very beginning of the examination suddenly stopped, and in a quiet manner asked the amount of the customary fee, paid it, and without a word walked away. There are better reasons, of course, against unkindness and coarse egotism, but it certainly no longer "pays" for physicians to be ungentlemanly.—American Medicine.

Piso's Cure is the best medicine we ever used for all affections of throat and lungs.—WM. O. ENDSLEY, Vanburen, Ind., Feb. 10, 1900.

IS YOUR HEALTH VALUABLE?

Disease is always a handicap; it unfits men for business and pleasure—sometimes temporarily often permanently. Life is a continuous struggle, and the man or woman afflicted with a Chronic Disease is outclassed at every turn. In this age of sharp competition, no man can hope to be successful unless sound in mind and body.

DR. HATHAWAY.

During my long career as a specialist, I have seen thousands who are carrying around some obstinate chronic disease as a burdensome companion, which they could easily rid themselves of by the proper treatment. Any honest physician will tell you that these diseases are stubborn and obdurate, and a special knowledge is required to treat them successfully. My special fitness for treating Chronic Diseases has been acquired by twenty years of close application, devoted exclusively to their study and treatment. I have treated more cases than any other physician in the United States, and I thoroughly understand just what is required in each case My specialty includes all chronic diseases, such as Stricture, Varicocele, Blood and Skin Disease, Bladder and Kidney Complaints, Diseases of Women, etc., and my original method of treatment has proven successful in even the most obstinate cases.

Jairus' Daughter.

The little maid's twelve stainless years
Were past, and she was fallen on sleep,
When to her side the Master came,
Uttering strange music in her ears,
And with the touch of a new birth
That, like a fine and fragrant flame,
Through every vain swept full and deep,
Called her again to happy earth.

How far in heaven her little feet
Had followed, there are none to say,
What atmosphere of love the while
Wrapped her like sunshine warm and sweet;
What soft wings stooped about her there,
The gracious light of what glad smile,
What tenderness along the way
Met and caressed her everywhere.

Whether she saw in rank o'er rank—
First venturing into heaven alone—
A phalanx of archangels shine,
Or whether on some blossom-bank
A cloud of cherubs sang and sang,
One knows not, nor if all divine
She saw; about the Great White Throne,
The rainbow like an emerald hang.

Yet earth must needs be sweet to her
After that voice, that touch of grace,
The heavenly peace imparted then
For her blest hands to minister.
And still a question comes to me
Of days ere heaven was hers again,
And which of all her wandering race
Child of that little maid might be,

SARTO MADE POPE

The Patriarch of Venice Chosen By a Vote of All the Cardinals

LEO'S SUCCESSOR CHOSEN AT LAST

Will Be Known as Pius X.—The Vote Was Unanimous—New Pope Dons the Robes of Office and Gives His Blessing to the People.

Cardinal Joseph Sarto, patriarch of Venice, was elected Pope in the succession of Leo XIII. Born at Riese June 2, 1835, made Cardinal June 12, 1893. The new Pontiff decided upon the name Pius X.

Rome, By Cable.—The conclave, after being in session for four days, Tuesday elected Guiseppe Sarto, patriarch of Venice, as Pope to succeed Leo XIII and he now reigns at the Vatican and over the Catholic world as Pius X.

His election and the assumption of his holy office were marked by a striking demonstration and impressive ceremonies at the Vatican which only ended Tuesday evening.

The date upon which the coronation of Pius X will occur has not yet been officially decided, but the impression prevails that it will occur August 9. Although the election was over at 11 o'clock and was announced to the wrold 45 minutes later by the appearance of the new Pope at the window of St. Peter's the conclave was not formally dissolved until 5:30 in the afternoon. The cardinals then returned to their various apartments in Rome, with the exception of Cardinals Rampolla and Oreglia, who temporarily retain their official suites in the Vatican and Cardinal Herrero Espinosa who is too ill to be removed for several days. It was to the sick cardinal that the new Pope paid his first visit after being proclaimed Pontiff.

With the exception of the Spanish cardinal, Herrero, all the others are now in fairly good health.

The election of the patriarch of Venice was unanimous. After Monday's ballots it was a foregone conclusion that he was the only candidate sufficiently acceptable to all to secure the necessary two-thirds, which the laws of the Church require. One of the cardinals said to the representative of the Associated Press that he believed Pius X would follow the broad line of Leo's policy, alshough not likely to accentuate it. This voices the general feeling here, which is one of satisfaction. The Pontiff is a man of simple origin and although not a very prominent candidate, he had been frequently mentioned as one of the many cardinals who might be taken up as a compromise. In several respects he resembles his venerable predecessor, notably in his reputation for culture and piety. Having been associated with no factions this fact alone won him much favor from foreign cardinals who were without an especial candidate. Pius X was humorously described as a "country mouse who could not possibly find his way about Rome."

Venetians who know the new Pope well say that he will soon be as much beloved as Pontiff as he was before as the beloved patriarch of the poor of the Adriatic. In appearance, Pius X is a very handsome man. He has a fine, erect figure, despite his 68 years, his face greatly resembling that of the late Philipps Brooks, the eminent Boston divine.

When he pronounced his first benediction at St. Peter's his voice rang out with splendid tone. In every way he showed beyond a doubt that he has dignity and personality in keeping with the best traditions associated with the famous Pontiffs who for centuries have ruled the Vatican.

New Pope Proclaimed.

Rome, By Cable.—The election of Pius X, once it was consummated, was proclaimed in a loud voice by the cardinal scrutinizers to the Sacred College. Mgr. Merry del Val, secretary of the conclave, and Prince Chigi, marshal of the conclave, were notified through a bell by Cardinal Oreglia. They entered the Sistine chapel amid visible excitement, the eager faces of the conclavists and prelates being seen crowding about the door.

It is impossible to describe the confusion in the chapel. The friends and supporters of the new Pope gathered around him, complimenting and congratulating him, crying "Viva," and even clapping their hands without ceremony. They appeared to be unable to contain their joy. Those few moments of oblivion gave Sarto's opponents time to recover their balance and conceal their chagrin, although the majority even among them declared themselves to be satisfied with the result, and only a few sour faces were seen.

Among the conclavists and prelates the expression of opinion was much freer, and two so lost control of their tempers that they had to be separated by the scandalized on-lookers. There was great irritation on one side, and a correspondingly great exultation on the other.

"Sarto," "Sarto," ran from mouth to mouth, penetrating to the furthermost corners of the Vatican precincts. After the election, even when the excitement began to calm down, none quite seemed to know what to do, it being to all, except Cardinal Oreglia, a new ceremonial. Even he had only seen it 25 years ago.

Cardinal Oreglia, as dean of the cardinals-bishops called Cardinals Netto and Machic, the deans respectively of the cardinal-priests and cardinal-deacons. They approached the new Pontiff, saying in Latin, distinctly, but with shaking voices, "Do you accept your election according to the canonical law as supreme Pontiff?

The moment was one of extreme tension of feeling. There was a perceptible pause before Pius X found and controlled his voice. Then he answered simply, "Yes." The cardinals thereupon removed their baldachins, so that of Sarto was the only one remaining, thus marking him as their supreme head. The passing supremacy of the cardinals was gone, and was now concentrated in one person.

WINCHESTER

Factory Loaded Smokeless Powder Shells.

It's not sentiment — it's not the price — that makes the most intelligent and successful shots shoot Winchester Factory Loaded Shotgun Shells. It's the results they give. It's their entire reliability, evenness of pattern and uniform shooting. Winchester "Leader" shells, loaded with smokeless powder, are the best loaded shells on the market. Winchester "Repeater" shells loaded with smokeless powder are cheap in price but not in quality. Try either of these brands and you will be well pleased. Be sure to get Winchester Factory Loaded shells.

As to Newspaper Names.

"I make a study of the names of newspapers," said an eccentric man. "Rare names I hail with joy. Common ones I despise. The commonest name of all is, probably, Times; what town hasn't its Times? Other common names are Chronicle, Express, Tribune, Post, Star, Sun, Republican, Democrat, News, Press, Herald, Advertiser, Telegraph and so on. An odd names is the Epitaph, of Tombstone, Ariz. Other odd names are the Puxsutawney Spirit, the Rarasek, of Pittsburg, the Jean Baptiste, of Pawtucket, the Greenville Cotton Plant, the Dixie Miller, of Nashville, the Austin Firm Foundation, the Opera Glass, of Galveston, the Norfolk Cornucopia, the Package, of Milwaukee, the Grit, of Williamsport. There are papers with names as Reveille, Monitor, Guardian and Watchman. The town of El Dorado, in Texas, has a paper that calls itself The Paper.—Philadelphia Record.
